

Bridgecorp – In the wake of the storm

Presented by:

Fred Hawke, Partner Clayton Utz

Jeremy Scott-Mackenzie, *Australasian Commercial Institutions
Manager – Financial Lines AIG

Fred Hawke and Jeremy Scott-Mackenzie are both leading authorities in their fields. With Fred recognised as a leading insurance and reinsurance lawyer with direct experience of insurance company operations and claims management and Jeremy having worked with the special sub-committee of the Insurance Council of Australia in the development of the insurance industry's response to the Bridgecorp decision, our speakers bring a unique insight to this discussion.

Fred and Jeremy will discuss:

- the conflicting positions of the New Zealand and Australian courts and the wash up of their decisions on when a statutory charge applies to deny an insured access to defence costs
- the Australian insurance industry's response to ensuring insured parties under policies with costs inclusive limits are guaranteed access to defence costs
- whether the statutory charge provisions of the relevant New Zealand statute has extra-territorial operation where, for example, an Australian based insured defending an Australian suit holds a policy governed by New Zealand law
