

The Australian Insurance Law Association Presents

eReports
General Insurance & Workers Compensation
MASTERCLASSES

PROGRAM

Friday 31 August 2018

RACV/RACT Hobart Apartment Hotel, 154-156 Collins Street, Hobart

About the 2018 Program

This year, AILA brings two outstanding insurance industry Masterclasses in association with eReports.

The eReports General Insurance Masterclass considers:

- John Price, Lead Ombudsman General Insurance of the current Financial Ombudsman Service Australia talking about insurance disputes before FOS and the 'new' Australian Financial Complaints Authority (AFCA);
- recent cases on interpretation of insuring clauses, exclusions and causation in insurance law, Jeffrey Goldberger, Special Counsel, Norton Rose Fulbright;
- recent professional indemnity cases and what professional indemnity insurance actually provides with Philip Jackson SC, barrister;
- Whether you take into account benefits a plaintiff has received or is to receive from any source other than the defence (e.g. insurance monies) in assessing damages is considered by Bruce McTaggart SC, barrister;
- Ethics and Duties in negotiations, mediations and settlements are discussed by Carly Sluiter, barrister.

The eReports Workers Compensation Masterclass considers:

- An interactive session with the Chief Commissioner of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Tribunal, Robert Webster on current issues.
- The topical diagnosis of Post Traumatic Stress Disorder with Psychiatrist, Dr Ian Sale;
- Mathew Wilkins discusses internal injuries and when an injury is an injury for the purposes of the Act;
- Chris Bartlett talks about the do's & don'ts of briefing experts;
- Return to work: Bumps, barriers and bargaining on the road to recovery & S.143 through the eyes of the injury management coordinator, the lawyer and the Tribunal.

The eReports Masterclasses provide an opportunity to engage in areas of importance and interest in the insurance sphere with experts in the field and network with your peers.
