

AILA

RON SHORTER AWARD 2019

Public Speaking
Training and Competition
for Young Professionals

THE FINALS ARE HERE – REGISTER TO ATTEND TODAY (IT'S FREE!)

You are invited to attend the QLD final of the Ron Shorter Award for Professionalism in Public Speaking. The event also includes networking with drinks and canapes.

The Ron Shorter Award is AILA's public speaking competition for young professionals in the insurance industry, providing invaluable training as well as exposure to industry peers and luminaries. Over 400 young insurance professionals have benefited from the competition since 2012.

Young professionals across the country submitted applications nominating an insurance-related topic of their choice. Applicants participated in a recent workshop on the key elements and nuances of public speaking, and using their newfound skills, spoke for two minutes on their topics. Three participants were chosen by a judging panel to progress to the final.
