Professional Indemnity Update: Causation and Counterfactuals

AILA Twilight welcomes Stuart Donaldson SC as the presenter of this seminar on developments in the area of professional liability. Senior counsel was successful in the defence of a recent and significant trustee liability and professional negligence case: Australian Executor Trustees (SA) Ltd v Kerr [2021] NSWCA 5. The NSW Court of Appeal in the Kerr case considered a number of matters relevant to claims against professionals, including and in particular the question of causation. AILA Twilight looks forward to senior counsel providing his insights on this issue as well as other recent developments in the area of professional negligence claims.
