

YEAR IN REVIEW

& AILA SA AGM

THE HONOURABLE
JUSTICE MARK LIVESEY
Supreme Court of South Australia

Our traditional South Australian Review event has returned, and it will focus on some of the significant cases that have shaped insurance and tort law during 2020. The event will include the AILA SA AGM.

Livesey JA graduated from the University of Adelaide with an LLB and an LLM before his admission in 1986. He was the associate to Justice R F Mohr. After partnership with Ward & Partners, he joined the independent bar in 2000, and took silk in 2006. Livesey JA was a highly respected litigator in the civil, commercial and appellate jurisdictions. He held numerous professional appointments including as President of both the South Australian and the Australian Bars and a Co-Chairman of the Forum of Barristers and Advocates with the IBA. He appeared in the Kapunda Road Royal Commission and was appointed as Special Investigator to the Attorney-General on the Procurement of 9 Diesel Emergency Power Generators. He is a Fellow of the Australian Academy of Law. His Honour was the first appointment to the Court of Appeal in January 2020.

This session will be chaired by SCOTT DUELL AILA SA State President & Assistant Underwriter | GT Insurance
