

LAW FOR INSURERS

“BUSTED BY THE BOOM”

Alison has no relevant skills or experience but is keen to cash in on the mineral resources boom. She signs up with a labour hire firm specializing in mining. After some basic training, she is sent to work with an equipment maintenance contractor at a mine site in western NSW. While carrying out cleaning and painting work on some machinery, Alison is injured when a securing chain breaks and her hand is crushed. She consults a personal injury lawyer for advice on her compensation rights.

Issues to be considered:

- Limitation Periods
- Defences/Cross Claims and contribution including policy/indemnity response
- Uniform Civil Procedures Act
- Offers of Compromise and costs
- Expert Evidence
- Terms of Settlement

Who should attend? This seminar has been co-ordinated on some basic aspects of law to assist young, less experienced members of your company to learn a little of the legal world, particularly as it relates to their insurance law work. It is not proposed that this seminar will necessarily attract senior personnel but rather that you may send some more junior members of your staff:

This event attracts CPD/CIP points: ANZIIF – 1 point: NIBA CPD – 1 point
MCLE and NSW Bar Association points also available
