TWILIGHT seminar series

The twilight seminar series is the flagship of the AILA NSW education calendar. This year there are six seminars to be held from June to August focusing on significant and distinct issues facing the insurance industry. The quality and interest of these seminars is assured by the calibre of the speakers.

8 JUNE

PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY UPDATE

Alister Abadee, a leading Sydney barrister and co-author of the leading text Professional Liability in Australia (3rd edition, 2016), will discuss recent developments in the law of professional liability. He will focus in particular on some of the unresolved issues regarding proportionate liability in claims against professionals as well as duties to third parties. Robert Mercer of Liberty International Underwriters will then consider how the Australian insurance industry is addressing these uncertain issues.

Speaker Alister Abadee, Barrister-at-Law, 7 Floor Wentworth Selborne Chambers

Commentator Robert Mercer, Specialty Casualty Claims Manager – Australia, Liberty International Underwriters

Chair Robin Bowley, University of Technology, Sydney

22 JUNE

LIABILITY UPDATE – 2016 TRENDS AND DEVELOPMENTS

The AILA twilight seminar committee is delighted to welcome Richard Cavanagh SC and Richard Jessup who will fill us in on recent developments and trends in the liability space from both a legal and claims perspective. Our expert speaker and commentator will explore the current tort temperature: is it hot, cold or boiling over?

Speaker Richard Cavanagh SC, Edmund Barton Chambers

Commentator Richard Jessup, Asia Pacific Claims Manager, Liability, XL Catlin

Chair Sybilla Waring-Lambert, Lander & Rogers

6 JULY

NEW PERSPECTIVES ON SUBROGATED RECOVERIES

The focus of this session will be the decision of the NSW Supreme Court in Johnston v Endeavour Energy. The decision illuminates a range of interesting and challenging issues arising from the use of class actions to pursue subrogated recoveries. This session will cover:

1. The legal framework for subrogated recoveries.
2. The class action framework.
3. Funding for class actions to pursue subrogated recoveries.

Speaker Stuart Donaldson SC, Ground Floor Wentworth Chambers

Speaker Susanna Khouri, IMF BENTHAM

Chair Lana Remedi, Kennedys

20 JULY

THE FUTURE OF GENERAL INSURANCE PRODUCT DISCLOSURE

A key focus of Government and ASIC is on improving product issuer and distributor accountability and product disclosure guidance and communication with consumers. This is a topic of real significance for the insurance industry. Mark Radford (Radford Lawyers) will facilitate this session, providing an overview of the current state of play and seeking feedback from a significant and well-rounded panel made up of Richard Enthoven (Hollard Insurance and ICA Board member), Robert Kelly (Steadfast), Michael Gill (DLA Piper), Peter Kell (ASIC).

Chair John Dillon, Clyde & Co

3 AUGUST

MANAGING MANAGEMENT LIABILITY

Management liability insurance now accounts for a sizeable portion of the financial lines market. It is therefore timely to ensure that it is properly understood from both an underwriting and claims perspective. Matt McPhee and Lynette Walsh will share their insights into the growing role of management liability insurance, addressing key issues such as what is and isn't covered, key differences from other covers and common claims issues.

Speaker Matt McPhee, Berkley Insurance Australia

Speaker Lynette Walsh, Arthur J Gallagher

Chair Ray Giblett, Norton Rose Fulbright

17 AUGUST

THE HIGH COURT AND INSURANCE LAW

In this seminar, leading commercial silk Dermot Ryan SC will present a broad overview of the approach of the High Court of Australia to contracts of insurance and will look at potential issues that may find their way into that court and how such issues might be resolved. AILA is privileged to announce that former Chief Justice of the High Court of Australia, the Hon Murray Gleeson AC will provide commentary on the Seminar.
