Eric Lowenstein CEO, Tego Insurance

Big Data is changing the landscape for the insurance industry and affects all stakeholders. New opportunities are emerging as risk is re-assessed and claims management reviewed.

AILA invites you to an exciting panel discussion on Big Data and its impact on underwriting and claims management.

Our expert speakers will present their unique perspective on the impact of Big Data in an insurance context. Topics will include using Big Data to your advantage in assessing risk, underwriting, claims management and litigation including:

- Practical issues in the use of Big Data in pricing risk, claims management and evidence
- Critical and recent cases
- The impact of Big Data on how insurers price risk and manage claims.

The floor will then be opened for questions to the panel.
