

EXPERT EVIDENCE

Presented by:

Nicholas Andreatidis | Barrister-at-Law

The Expert Evidence seminar will focus on:

1. issues that arose in the context of expert evidence in a variety of proceedings including:
 - disclosure of draft reports;
 - Whether an opinion is, in truth an “expert” opinion or something the Court is able to determine on its own;
 - Attempts to adduce “expert evidence” when not a recognised science
 - An expert acting as an advocate
 - Consequences of using employees of a party to the proceeding to give expert evidence
 - An expert giving an opinion that contradicts prior academic writings by the expert
2. a discussion about presenting complex expert evidence in an easy to understand and persuasive manner
