About the 2017 Program

MASTERCLASSES

This year, AILA brings two outstanding insurance industry RedHealth Masterclasses.

The RedHealth General Insurance Masterclass has sessions that will focus on:

- driverless cars and their impact on insurance;
- duties of brokers;
- ethics surrounding 'reservation of rights' letters;
- Civil Liability Act and its implementation;
- and the High Court's changing approach to negligence.

The RedHealth Workers Compensation Masterclass considers:

- how insurance companies can recover workers compensation payments from a third party;
- how to work with GP's on workers compensation claims;
- defences to workers compensation claims available to Employers;
- and the perception of stress and the defences available in psychological illness claims.

The afternoon will end with an interactive session with the new Chief Commissioner of the Workers Rehabilitation and Compensation Tribunal, Robert Webster.

The RedHealth Masterclasses provide an opportunity to engage in areas of importance and interest in the insurance sphere with experts in the field and network with your peers.

CPD Points

3 CPD points per Masterclass, 6 CPD points for full day program – TAS Law Society, NIBA, AICLA, ANZIIF.

Accommodation

If you require accommodation, the Hadley's Orient is offering a discounted room rate to anyone attending the Redhealth Masterclasses. Bookings are to be made directly with the hotel. Please mention your attendance to receive the discounted room rate. Room bookings are subject to availability,
